The new courses are directly inspired by the Europa-Park itself and provide you with pure Europa-Park feeling. You will speed along Voltron Nevera, WODAN - Timburcoaster and the Eurosat, rush through the famous entrance gate of Europa-Park – or even dare to take your racer into the Swiss bobsleigh run.

The Roller Coaster Challenge is brand new: Here you can prove you're faster than the legendary blue fire Megacoaster – solo or locally with up to four players. Four new characters with their own racers and designs are also joining the lineup: Snorri, the Rulantica star; Mme Freudenreich, the heroine of DINO MATES; Socke the Allosaurus; and Rubi, the Yomi girl. Ride with these new additions on all the new and existing tracks from the main game.

DLC features at a glance:

- Pure Europa-Park-feeling: Four brand-new tracks inspired by Europa-Park – playable individually or consecutively in the Grand Prix mode
- Landmarks galore: Past Voltron Nevera, WODAN - Timburcoaster and or the Eurosat
- Signature moments: Right through the entrance gate of Europa-Park, detour to the Swiss bobsleigh run
- New mode – Roller Coaster Challenge: Beat the blue fire Megacoaster (solo or locally up to 4)
- Four new characters + racers/designs: Snorri, Mme Freudenreich, Socke (Allosaurus) and Rubi

Availability

The DLC "Ed & Edda: GRAND PRIX – Goes Europa-Park" is available today for all platforms of the main game. Continue playing seamlessly, discover the new courses, and show who's setting the fastest times at Europa-Park.

About the main game

ABOUT TIVOLA GAMES

Tivola Games is one of Germany's oldest game studios. For exactly 30 years, Tivola has been developing games for the whole family, with a strong focus on animal games, initially on PCs and then for a long time on mobile devices. However, recently, Tivola Games has returned to its roots and is once again producing premium games for PCs and consoles. Tivola Games is currently working with developer Funatics on Ed & Edda: GRAND PRIX – Racing Champions, which is being published by Tivola Games in cooperation with Europa-Park.

ABOUT MACK MAGIC

MACK Magic, part of the MACK Group, was founded by entrepreneur and producer Michael Mack and is dedicated to developing captivating transmedia story worlds and unforgettable characters. Our focus is on creating international media and IP brands that can be experienced with all the senses – from film and TV productions to publishing and licensing products, theme park attractions, and much more.

As part of the 245-year-old Mack family business, MACK Magic has a rich history in the entertainment industry. The family business began by building carousels for showmen and eventually became one of the world's leading manufacturers of rides and roller coasters, known as MACK Rides. In addition, the Mack family founded and operates one of Europe's most successful theme parks, Europa-Park, as well as other entertainment companies such as VR Coaster and MACK Animation.

Since 2019, MACK Magic has sold over 700,000 books in more than ten countries and developed attraction-based media content that delights fans around the world.

Our passion lies in bringing unforgettable characters and their stories to life, developing fantastic worlds, and using these elements to create innovative and captivating experiences.

ABOUT EUROPA-PARK

While only 250,000 guests visited Europa-Park in 1975, today the Europa-Park adventure resort is one of the most visited tourist destinations in Germany with more than six million visitors annually.

More than 150 million people have visited the park since its inception. With around 100 attractions and international shows, fun and entertainment for the whole family are guaranteed on an area of 95 hectares.

The Europa-Park Adventure Resort is more than just a classic theme park—it's also a renowned conference venue and a popular location for events and television productions. Thanks to the Rulantica water world and the largest connected hotel resort in Germany, the resort is a unique short break destination for visitors from all over the world.
